

JOHN WILLIAM CLAY

Born in 1887 in Halifax, England.

Received his public and high school education in Toronto, Ontario. Graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1905 and from the University of Toronto in 1906.

Fellow of the International College of Dentists, 1929.

Honorary Lecturer, University of Alberta, since 1959.

Member of the University Dental Library Committee, the Quota Committee, Faculty of Dentistry.

Chairman, University Liason Committee of the Alberta Dental Association.

Staff of the Holy Cross Hospital since 1942 and lecturer to nurses.

Registrar, Alberta Dental Association, 1920-1923.

President, Canadian Dental Association, 1926-27, 1927-28,
Vice-President, Western Canada Dental Society, 1949. + President, 1951.

Calgary representative to the Institute of International Affairs, 1950, where he served as President.

Received an Honorary L. L. D. from the University of Alberta, 1950

Active on the Board of Trade.

A strong supporter of the Symphony Orchestra and the Institute of Art.

An enthusiastic fisherman, hunter and golfer.