

H E HALPIN, D. D. S.

Received his education at the University of Alberta, and at McGill University.

Practised dentistry in Rimbey, Alberta, until November, 1939, when he received his commission in the Canadian Dental Corps. He was promoted to the rank of Major, and officer in charge of the Dental Clinic at Curries Barracks, serviced by No. 33 Coy, C.D.C. at Calgary. During the last war, he served with the Winnipeg Grenadiers from 1915 until 1919.