

GAYLORD JOSEPH JAMES, D.D.S., F.I.C.D.

Graduated from Western Reserve University School of Dentistry, 1925.

Lecturer in Dental Assistant training, Cleveland College, 1940-1941.

Lecturer in Practice Management, the School of Dentistry, Western Reserve University from 1938-1947.

From 1947 on, he is Assistant Professor of Practice Management at Western Reserve University.

Was the Secretary, Committee of Lecturers in Practice Management in Dental Schools, 1940.

Was Treasurer of the Cleveland Dental Society, 1945, 1946, 1947.

Past President of the Alumni Association of the School of Dentistry, Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Was President of the Cleveland Study Club of Dental Economics.

Chairman of the Section on Practice Management, of the American Dental Association

In January, 1948, he presented a Clinic before the Toronto Chapter, Alpha Omega Fraternity.

Some of his articles include:

"Professional savings plan leading toward national victory and personal security"

"Practice management in War Time"

"100 things a dentist must do"

"Five phases of successful practice management"

"The goal of practice management instruction"