

LORNE VERNON JANES.

Born in Watford, Ontario.

In 1908, he joined the Merchant's Bank, serving at Watford, and Alveston, Ontario, Vancouver, B.C., Calgary, Acme, and Manson, Alta. He resigned to study dentistry.

He graduated from the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ont. in 1914, and went to Edmonton to practice.

In 1915, he enlisted in the Canadian Army Dental Corps, and went overseas in 1916, serving in England and France.

In 1919, he returned to Edmonton, to continue practice, specializing in porcelain work.

In 1940, he was appointed Director of Dental Services for M.D. No.13, at Calgary.

He is Past President of the Edmonton Dental Society, the Alberta Dental Association, and the Edmonton Gyro Club, and is still a member of the Board of the Alberta Dental Association.

Golf is his chief interest.

He has twin sons and a daughter.