

DR. EDGAR WATSON PAUL

Born at Feversham, Ontario, 26 November 1878.

Attended Feversham Public School and Collingwood Collegiate Institute.

✓ D.D.S. conferred 1901.

Instructor, Anaesthesia 1908-9, School of Dentistry of R.C.D.S.

Instructor, Anaesthesia and Exodontia 1909-14, School of Dentistry of R.C.D.S.

Lecturer and Clinician, Anaesthesia and Exodontia 1914-16, School of Dentistry of R.C.D.S.

Professor, Anaesthesia and Exodontia 1916-25, School of Dentistry of R.C.D.S.

Professor of Dental Surgery and Anaesthesia 1925-48, University of Toronto.

Librarian, Faculty of Dentistry 1937-46.

Member of Senate, 1926-27, 1927-28.

Certified Specialist in Dental Oral Surgery 1944.

President, Ontario Dental Association 1936.

Archivist, Ontario Dental Association, 1937-44

Member of Board of Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario 1941-49.

President, Dentists' Legal Protective Association 1944 to present.

Fraternal Associations - Ashlar Masonic Lodge No. 247 G.R.C. and Xi Psi Phi Fraternity.

Club Affiliations - Rotary Club, Granite Club, Thornhill Golf and Country Club.

Church - United.

Probably the first specialist in Dental Oral Surgery in Canada.

10 April 1952.

EDGAR WATSON PAUL, D.D.S.

Graduated from the Royal College of Dental Surgeons in 1901.

Was made Professor of Dental Surgery and Anaesthesia in the Faculty of Dentistry, University of Toronto, 1911-1947.

President of the Ontario Dental Association, 1936.